AFTER THE ENCAMPMENT,

Washington Rolling on In the Old Rut Again.

IN MEMORY OF SIR KNIGHT HUME.

Mount Calvary No. 1, of Omaha, Adopts Resolutions Declaring Its Esteem of the Departed-Winnipeg's Unique Display.

WASHINGTON BUREAU, THE OMARA BEE, 513 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11. Washington has to-night assumed her normal proportions. The great volume of visitors who have thronged the city during the past week have nearly all left for their homes. The workmen who have been resurfacing Pennsylvania avenue turned out to-day with their great traction engine and began to plow the old asphalt up like, sod. Business in other quarters has been resumed. The president and cabinet officers are again at work on their routine and other duties, the same as before the rush began. Politicians are beginning to drop in and take the place of the knights, who are speeding their way homeward.

All the trappings have been taken from the Nebraska headquarters and their building on Ninth street is dark, C. B. Finch and S. M. Nevins, of Kearney, left for the west to-night and will stop two or three days in Chicago. The following leave for New York to-morrow: John Dwyer and wife, E. E. Salisbury and wife, of Beatrice; E. C. Webster and wife, Hastings; Ray Nye and wife, Fremont, Most of the Lincoln people left to-day for various points, among them R. P. R. Miller and wife and A. J. Sawyer and wife for the west.

The usualbu siness routine will be taken up now and there will be no more talk of the Knights Templar and their doings. DeMolay commandery extended a special invitation to Mount Caivary commandery and their ladies and all other Nebraska knights and ladies to attend their reception to-night and the few who yet remain accepted. W. R. Bowen and daughter, of Omaha, leave for home in the morning. The following are among those leaving for New York: L. M. Keene, Fremont, and Gustave Anderson, wife and daughter; L. H. Korty, wife and daughter; C. B. Horton and wife, of Omaha.

In memory of Sir Knight Hume, before breaking camp, Mount Calvary commandery No. 1, of Omaha, adopted the following:

"The sir knights of Mount Calvary com-mandery No. 1, of Omaha, on a pilgrimage at Washington, D. C., having heard with pro-found sorrow of the death of Sir Knight David M. Hume, a most active, faithful and zealous member of our commandery, desire to give expression to our feelings on this occasion. The truth of the words, In the midst of life we are in death' comes to us at this time with great force. While the greatest display in the annals of modern Knights Templarism was at its height and glory on Pennsylvania avenue Sir Knight David Hume, in our faraway home, Omaha, was obeying the 'fatal mandate of the angel of death,' which we must all of us sooner or later obey. To his brothers and relatives we would extend our heartfelt sympathy and would say to them that knight for many years can testify to the justness, maniness, kindli-ness and charity of his character and can appreciate in some manner your loss. We, with you, mourn the loss of a be-loved brother. Realizing our inability in the presence of death to comfort with mere words we would simply take you to the ban-ner of our commandery, point you to the cross of Calvary and there leave you in the hands of the Great Captain of our salvation. Sir knights, for ourselves individually let us heed the striking reminder that we know not how soon the angel of death may receive the fatal mandate to strike us from the roll of human existence. May we then so gratefully improve the remaining span of life that when our hour of death arrives our disembodied spirits may som aloft in the realms of light and life eternal

"Resolved, That the above expresses the feelings of the Sir Knights in attendance on the triennal conclave at Washington; that copies of the above be sent to the brothers of deceased, that a copy be posted in the Nebraska headquarters at Washington and that a copy be sent to the recorder of Mount Calvary commandery, and that in addition the standard of our commandery be properly draped and that the Sir Knights in attendance at Washington wear the proper emblem of mearning. C. B. HORTON, acting recorder."

CURIOS FROM WINNIPEG. "Curios from Winnipeg, we never sleep," is printed on the Winnipeg knights cards, and it would have been a very tired and worn out knight who could have slept in the midst of the bustle and activity at the headquarters during the past two nights. Visiting delegations were coming and going constantly. The first thing to attact attention on entering the room was a splendid collection of artistically mounted heads. First came a North American elk, then a splendid specimen of an American bighorn. The prize of the collection was a hugh musk ox. Still further along is a caribou's head with its branching horns and curious projections for digging in the snow. Then there are several buffales a black tail deer and a buge head of an American moose. This herd is a spiendid one and its owner was killed within ten wiles of Winners Head and these miles of Winnipeg. Besides these larger specimens there are a number of red deer, antelope and Rocky mountain goats. Some of these heads have been sold and others are for sale at prices ranging from $25 to $100. Besides the heads the Winnipeg knights have with them a large collection of Indian

MRS, BARR BALKED.

Judge-Groff Renders Another Important Land Decision. WASHINGTON. D. C., Oct. 11 .- Land Com-

nissioner Groff has rendered a decision in the case of May Barr, formerly a Wasson resident, in the Mitchell, Dak., land district. It appears from the testimony that in July 1885, Mrs. Barr, then a resident of the state of Iowa, went to Dakota on a visit and while there took up eighty acres of land adjoining a tract then recently entered by Michael Barr. She purchased a house and had it moved on her claim, broke one acre had it moved on her claim, broke one acre and made other improvements. At that time, she says in her testimony, she had no intention of marrying Mr. Barr, but later they married and moved the houses up close together upon the line, sodded them all round on the outside, mak-ing one house. They were then papered. Barr but his bed, stove, table, etc., in his house. She put her hed, stove, table, etc., in his house. She put her bed, stove, table, etc., in her house. There is no means of communi-cation between the two different parts of the cation between the two different parts of the house except by going outside, each having an outside door. She acted in good faith in making the entry, not knowing Michael Barr at the time and having no understanding that it was to be kept in Barr's family. She omplied with the homestead law fully.

Mrs. Barr's claim is rejected on the ground that husband and wife cannot maintain separate relations at the same time and in the same house, so that each by virtue of said residence may perfect an entry under the homestead law. It is said there are a num-ber of cases in the general land office similar in all important respects to the case of Mrs.

THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Eminent Commander Olcott Suspended For One Year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 .- At a meeting of the grand encampment to-day the committee on ritual made report. The report was adopted in part, so much of it as related to ceremonials being referred back to the commitce with certain amendments and with instructions to prepare a report to be submit-ted at the next triennial conclave. This leaves the present ceremonial in force three years longer. Robert Heitung, the oldest Templar in the state of Indianr, delivered an appropriate address at the tomb of Washing-

Commander O'cott Suspended. Washington, Oct. 11.-At to-day's session of the grand encampment of the Knights Templar, Eminent Commander Olcott, of the District of Columbia, was suspended from all knightly intercourse for a year for having illegally knighted William Oscar Roome, and the latter's election was declared illegal, The grand master announced the appointment of the following officers: General M. M. Moulton, Illinois, grand standard bearer; Colonel Myron M. Parker, District of Columbia, grand sword bearer; Henry M. Alton, Tennessee, grand warden; Francis E. White, of Nebraska, grand captain of the

THE PAN-AMERICAN EXCURSION. Hill Welcomes the Delegates to New York-Will Visit the South. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 11.-The delegates to the International congress were today taken to the Armory Morgan Envelope works, where all the stamped envelopes used by the government are made, the Smith & Wesson Arms works and other places of interest.

Chester, Mass., Oct. 11.—A committee of the Holyoke Manufacturers' association welcomed the excursionists to Holyoke, where they arrived at 3 o'clock. They were at once shown the magnificent dam across the Connecticut river and one of the most mod ern paper mills in full operation. About 3:30 the train started for Albany, stopping long enough at Springfield to take on Mr. Bliss, who with Henderson represents the United States delegates.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 11.—The train arrived here shortly after 8 o'clock. The party at once went to the hotel, where they surren dered themselves to the local committee. The route to the capital was brilliantly if luminated and a vast throng were on the streets. The party entered carriages and preceded by a band and the Tenth battalion of Albany were escorted to the city hall, where they were welcomed by Mayor Maher. Thence they went to the capitol, which was brilliantly illuminated. Governor Hill re-ceived the party in the executive chamber and after welcoming the visitors to the state made a brief address, which was responded to by Delegate Henderson. The capitol building was then inspected.

The South Will Not Be Slighted. WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 .- The secretary of state receives many invitations for the International American conference to visit certain sections of the south. It should be generally and widely known that the present arrangement is that early in January ntention that the distinguished delegates shall investigate that section even more horoughly than they are now examining the

HIS FLESH SIZZLED.

The Horrible Death of a Lineman Caught in the Electric Wires. NEW YORK, Oct. 11.-A lineman in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph company met with a horrible death this afternoon while repairing wires in the central business section of the city. He presented a terrible sight as he died on a net work of wires in mid air, while the deady fluid actually made his flesh sizzle and his blood to pour out on the sidewalk and over the pour out on the sidewalk and over the clothes of the borrified spectators below.

The man's face was turned toward the walk. In fifteen minutes the wire had burned of half of the face of the victim.

His left arm was also burning, and every few seconds blue flames spurted out from various parts of his body. Hundreds of people stood shivering as they looked at the awful sight overhead. No one dared to go awful sight overhead. No one dared to go Immediately after the accident Mayor Grant was notified. The mayor gave orders hat the carried current should be turned

The body of the lineman was left on the wires for more than half an hour, when it was taken down after the current had been turned off. Coroner Jenkins said if the man had remained suspended in the air longer the head would have been severed from the body.

A FATAL COLLISION.

One Man Killed, Four Will Die and

Twenty Slightly Injured. PITTSBURG, Oct. 11 .- A collision occurred near Bridgeport this morning between a train conveying about seventy miners to the Wheeling coal works on a freight and a passenger train, and a portion of the freight train was demolished.

David Moore, a miner, was killed, four others were fatally injured and about twenty more seriously injured. None of the latter, however, will die, their injuries being confined to bruises and slight fractures.

The accident was caused by the failure of The accident was caused by the failure of the engineer of the freight train to obey orders. He had been instructed to wait at the mines until the work train arrived, but instead pulled out for Bridgeport.

Work For a Limited Number. SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Oct. 11 .- The Spring Valley Coal company to-day posted up a notice offering to employ a limited number of men for thick work at Streator prices. A number of men called on the general manager to notify him that the miners were ready to resume work on the third vein on the same conditions as at La Salle. He re-fused to treat with them except as individuals. At a mass meeting of the miners a mo-tion was carried that no one should go to work until a committee of the men was recognized by the company. The Bondsmen Must Pay. FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 11 .- [Special to THE BEE.]-Judgment was rendered to-day in the district court for $1,200 in favor of Dodge county against the bondsmen of Louis Spear. Spear held the office of clerk of the district court-for this county one term. When the court house burned on the 31st of December, 1887, a large number of the records of his office were left in the court room and were de-stroyed. In the suit it was shown that inasmuch as he had a vault is which to keep his books and did not do so he should be held for their value. Soon after the fire Spear disap-peared and his bondsmen will make good the loss to the county. They are Oswald Muller, Fred Brunke, C. H. Toneray and Chris Kneell

Governor Thayer at McCook. McCook, Neb., Oct. 11.- Special Telegram to THE BEE !- Friday opened up clear and calm and everything was propitious for the greatest day of the reunion, the military parade having been postponed until to-day owing to the absence of Governor Thayer. A royal welcome was given the governor as he alighted from the west-bound train this morning. He was accompanied by Secretary of State Laws and Treasurer Hill, Last night's camp fire was conducted by General McCook, Adjutant General Cole and Comrades Burton, Majors, Bixler and Gaze, concluding with a court-martial, To-day's parade was the important event of the reunion. The column formed at the camp and marched into the city, where it was reviewed from the balcony of the Commercial notel by General McCook, Governor Thayer and other distinguished visitors. The order of the parade was as follows: First division, commanded by Adjutant General Cole, Danbury band; Nebraska National guard; veterans under arms; sons of veterans and Murdock's battery Second division commanded by Calonel into the city, where it was reviewed from the tery. Second division, commanded by Colonel J. D. Gaze, McCook band, Knights of Pythias; Odd Fellows; traveling men; Mc-Cook fire department.

The sham battle was a great success. It was all field work. Batteries were taken and retaken, whole companies made prisoners, and the national guards behaved like regulars. The battle ground was the high ground west of the city, with a large ravine between the opposing forces. A district reunion association was formed, comprising western Nebraska, northwestern Kansas and the two eastern counties of Colorado and executive committees appointed. To-morrow is the closing day of the reunion. It is estimated that there was at least fifteen thousand people in attendance to-day.

The Pettit Murder Trial.

KEARNEY, Neb., Oct. 11.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-The third day of the Pettit murder trial closed late this evening. The court room has been thronged with spectators since the trial began and the interest manifested at the outcome runs high. This morning the attorneys for the defense offered a motion to compel the prosecution to call Mrs. Julia A. Pettit for a witness. She is held as an accomplice in the murder and for this reason the state's attorney objected. The court sustained the motion. In jected. The court sustained the motion. In her evidence she could not remember any-thing directly bearing on the killing of her husband, and her story conflicted with the evidence she gave at the anguest. Washing-ton Pettit passed a lengthy examination and said that all he did was to save his mother's life. It is expected that some entirely new evidence of the guilt of the accused will be brought out in to morrow's proceedings. brought out in to-morrow's proceedings.

A DEBAUCHED COUPLE.

The Wife Dead and the Husband Dy ing of Delirium Tremens, KANSAS CITY, Oct. 11 .- A St. Joseph, Mo. special says: Yesterday the half brother of Richard J. Ambrose, upon entering the rooms of the tenement where Ambrose lived with his wife, saw a horrible spectacle.

Mrs. Ambrose lay dead on a straw pallet on the floor and in the corner of the room lay her husband in the final stages of delirium tremens. Ambrose was taken to the hospital. The physicians say he will die. The neigh-bors of the unfortunate couple say Mr. and Mrs. An brose were in the habit of getting months. They would lock themselves in their rooms and admit no one during these debauches. They never quarreled and al-ways appeared to be very fond of each other. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict to-day that Mrs. Ambrose died of alcoholism and starvation.

Boston, Oct. 11 .- The Traveller prints un der date of Seoul, Corea, September 8, a letter from Mrs. Heron, wife of Dr. Heron, of Tennessee, who was reported sentenced to death by the king of Corea for teaching christianity. Mrs. Heron had just recovered from a dangerous illness. She says the king would not do what has been charged against im, and adds that their only danger is from the ignorant and superstitious lower classes. She says neither she nor her husband are teaching christianity, as it has been expressly forbidden. They live in the hope of a treaty revision which will allow them to do so.

The Averit Lynching. LARAMIE, Wyo., Oct. 11 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The Carbon county grand jury which will investigate the recent lynching of James Averill and Ella Watson in the Sweetwater country, meets at Rawlins on Monday. Great excitement exists at Rawlins over the uncertainty as to the outcome of the case, and it is already predicted that if indictments are not found against those who have acknowledged having done the lynching there will be serious trouble. In the north Sweetwater country nearly everybody is carrying a revolver. Senti-ment in Hawlins is about equally divided. The friends of the dead man have contrib-uted liberally to a fund to assist in the prose-cution, and an assistant prosecuting attorney en hired by the county commissioners A. J. Bothwell, the big land owner who is believed to have been the instigator of the hanging, and who, with John Durbin, drove off Ella Watson's cattle and caused them to be sold, returned from the east yesterday and will face the music. It had been charged that he would not return to Wyomling.

The Northwestern Break in Rates Shortly to Be Adjusted.

ASSURANCES FROM THE "SOO."

As Soon as the Lake Lines Stop Business For the Season It Will Go Rack to the Old Basis,

A Prospective Patchup. CHICAGO, Oct. 11.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- It now seems practically certain that the Northwestern break in rates will be satisfactorily settled at the close of navigation. Positive assurances have been received from the "Soo" line that as soon as the lake tines stop business for the season is will, with the concurrent action of the Chicago-St. Paul lines, raise rates to the old basis, The Burlington & Northern, if agreeable to the advance, may fairly be taken as a mouthpiece of the northwestern lines, as it was the one to start the break. Traffic Manager Hamblin, of the Burlington & Northern, said to-day to your representa-

'I think there is no doubt that the "Soo" will agree to an advance in rates when lake competition ceases. If it does we will gladiy advance the rates with it. In that event, of course, it will make no difference whether or not we secure the co-operation of all-rail lines to the scaboard. The old plan of charging the sum of the local rates will be re adopted. Of course our consent to raise the rates is contingent on the assent of the Chicago-St. Paul lines, but I think they will be as willing as we are to go back to the old basis," The threatened spread of the low St. Paul rates has been stopped by agreement between the Burlington and Rock Island. The Rock Island agrees to restore rates at Keokuk on the 3d and the Burlington has promkuk on the 3d and the Burlington has promised to do likewise at Burlington. This will make Davenport the southernmost point affected by the low St. Paul rates. The Illinois Central, which threatened to make exactly the same rates to Sioux City as have been made to St. Paul, has postponed action until the November meeting of the Western Freight association. By that time it is heaved that any lightly will be glossed and it is hoped that navigation will be closed and the St. Paul rates restored. A glance at the map will show the disastrous effects of the low rates at Sioux City. They will inevita-bly spread to Omaha and Kansas City and reduce the gross earnings of all western roads 40 per cent. The Illinois Central's notice is regarded in Chicago merely as a bluff to compel the Burlington to take the Burlington & Northern under its wing and make it restore rates.

The Pennsylvania Aiso Manipulates. CHICAGO, Oct. 11 .- Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The western passenger agents have removed the magnifying glass from their competitors and are now turning it on the Pennsylvania road. They charge that there has never been a more barefaced manipulation of tickets than that which the Pennsylvania will maugurate on the return of the Knights Templar from the Washington conclave. The gist of the matter is contained in a notice sent out to-day by the Pennsylvania to its western connections, In brief it says that it was impossible to stamp the return portions of the conclave tickets and requested all western lines to honor the return portions of such tickets, whether properly stamped or not. Private advices from the east say that the morning papers have charged the Pennsylvania with placing large blocks of return portions of the conclave tickets in the hands of scalpers. It can be imagined, therefore, what effect these articles produced in Chicago when followed so soon by the Pennsylvania request. A meeting of the Western States Passenger asso ciation was called to-day to consider the quest. It was charged on all I that conclave tickets had already manipulating on the going portion and they had been sold until the 9th by the Michigan Central, Chicago & Atlantic and Baltin & Ohio, when the limit of sale had been defi-nitely fixed for the 7th. There was no help for it, however, and the association passed i resolution granting the Pennsylvania's request.

Dismissed With Costs.

New York, Oct. 11.-Judge Wallace, in the United States circuit court, handed down a decision in the action brought by R. Spies against the Chicago & Eastern Illinois company dismissing the action with costs. The complainant was the holder of income bonds of the road and brought action in behalf of himself and other holders of the securities. He alleged that the directors of the road conspired to fraudulently compel the holders of income bonds to surrenge them for consul bonds subsequently created, and that they sought to make it appear that nothing had been earned on account of in bonds. In concluding his decision Judge Waltace said:

"No relief can be granted to complainant under the present bill, because, having alleged a case of fraud, he cannot be permitted to support it on any other grounds. It would seem that the directors of the road have acted under an honest misapprehension of their duties to the bond holders, suppos-ing that the position contended for them by counsel was correct.

Western Freight Association, CHICAGO, Oct. 11 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. - The Western Freight association concluded its session to-day. The main business of the day was a material change in the transaction of business by the appointment of a number of standing committees, who will deal with any subject for discussion, the association to act on their reports Each committee consists of five, of which three will form a quorum. The plan is modeled after the one in such satisfactory use by the Central Traffic association.

The Burlington & Northern submitted a resolution that the 60-cent scale of rates h tween Chicago and St. Paul be restored No-vember 11; that the pre-rating arrangement with eastern roads on Mississippi river traffic be withdrawn and through rates he based on the sum of local, and that the "Soo" line shall charge on seaboard traffic the same as the sum of locals by way of Chicago. Fell Off a Train. PINE BLUFFS, Wyo., Oct. 11.- [Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-A young lady named Della Casey fell off train No. 2 on the Union Pacific about three miles west of

Hillsdale, Wyo. She was picked up by a section hand, a slight scratch being the only injury she received. She was on her way to Aid for the Striking Miners. SCOTTDALE, Pa., Oct. 11 .- At the conven tion of the cokeworkers and miners in the Connellsville region to-day, resolutions were adopted pledging the Illino's and Indiana striking miners all the material aid in their power and recommending that each local as-sembly of this district take the necessary steps to collect from their members 25 cents every two weeks to support the strikers until they are victorious. Stopping Work at Johnstown. JOHNSTOWN, Pa., October 11 .- The state forces are preparing to close up their work to-morrow and quit for good. Three bodies were found this morning by workmen while making a sewer outlet. It seems hard to stop work at this stage with the stream full of dead bodies, but the orders are that the work must cease. THE CZAR IN BERLIN.

Emperor William and the Russian Fall On Each Other's Necks, BERLIN, Oct. 11.-The czar arrived in Berlin to-day and was met at the station by Emperor William, Prince Bismarck, Count Herbort Bismarck and a number of generals and court officials. He and Emperor William embraced repeatedly. After their greeting was over, the party was driven to the Russian embassy. - As the imperial carriages passed the Brandenberg gate, salutes were fired. The streets along the route were crowd which gathered did not cheer as the czar passed. Emperor William remained at the Russian embassy to attend the dinner given by the Russian embassador. Count Schonvaloff welcomed the czar and called for three cheers for his majesty. There was a hearty response. The czar, speaking in French, toasted Emperor William. The two em-perors conversed animatedly during the re-past. In the afternoon the czar drove out in an open carriage surrounded by cavelry. He visited the ex-Empresses Augusta and Frederick. On returning to the embassy. The czar retired for a short time for rest and quiet. At 4:30 o'clock Prince Bismarck arrived and remained in conference with the czar until 6 o'clock. The chancellor upon leaving was escorted to his carriage by Count Schou valoff, the Russian embassador.

A dinner in honor of the czar was given this evening in the white hall of the Schloss. The czar sat between the emperor and the empress, facing Prince Bismarck. The emperor in toasting the czar said: "I drink to the welfare of my honored friend and guest, the emperor of Russia, and to the continuance of the friendship which has existed between our houses for over one hundred years and which I am resolved one hundred years and which I am resolved to cherish as a legacy from my ancestors." The czar, replying in French, thanked the emperor for his friendly sentiments and drank to his welfare. Turning to Prince Bismarck the czar raised his glass and drank to the chancellor who stood up and bowed doeply. There was a similar change of cour-tesies betweeen Emperor William and the Russian embassador.

Ex-Empress Frederick will give a dinner in honor of the czar to-morrow. To-night the czar attended a gala per formance at the opera house. He sat be tween the emperor and empress. Grand Duke George and other members of the Ger man royal family were present. At the con clusion of the performance the czar and hi son returned to the Russian embassy.

Not So Cordial.

LONDON, Oct. 11 .- The Berlin correspond ent of the Daily News says: The czar's toast at the banquet was couched in the fewest possible words, which were hardly audi ble. The impression produced was like a cold draught. The presence of Prince Bismarck at the opera house caused a sensation, as he has not attended an opera or concert in thirty years, not even being present on the occasion of the celebration of the late Emperor William's ninetieth birthday.

MILITARY MOVE IN CANADA. The British War Ooffice Orders Some

Interesting Information. MONTREAL, Oct. 11.-|Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-"To the Deputy Adjutant Generals of the Several Military Districts of Canada: On receipt of this communication you will immediately take steps to ascertain in your several districts the fullest information regarding all facilities for the transportation of troops from one part of the country to another, givings details as to means of transport by rail and water, and also ascertain how many horses are available in your district at short notice for the purpose of military transport."

Such is the order that has just been re ceived by the commanders of the military districts in the Dominion from the British war office. As news of the order became public, as might have been expected, it caused considerable excitement in civic as well as military circles, in the latter of which extraordinary activity prevails. What is the cause of such a mandate from such a quarter! Is Great Britain preparing to engage in immediate war with some other power, and is Canada unknowingly to be grawn into the struggle! Such are the questions asked by citizens. By many the order is con-sidered as a hint that the alleged agreement between England and the United States in the Behring sea difficulty is not satisfactory, and that England wishes to show the United States that she is ready for business,

RIOTOUS "MEDICS."

The Students of Victoria Medical College in Open Rebellion. MONTREAL, Quebec, Oct. 11:- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The students of the Victoria Medical school are in open rebellion against amalgamation with the Laval Medical school. They were unruly yesterday and the pro-lessors anticipated trouble. To day one of the professors displayed a revolver and wa then permitted to enter the lecture room, but could not get a hearing, and departed when his hour was up. Two other professors who subsequently endeavored to enter the room to deliver lectures found the doors barricaded and the students making threat ening demonstrations at them through the glass portions of the doors. The riotous students will be punished.

MURDERED IN A CONVENT.

A Startling Story From a Town in Texas.

AN ESCAPED STUDENT'S TALE!

Two Priests in Charge Murder a Boy. Procure a Bogus Inquest and Then Secretly Bury the Body.

More Than One Killed. FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 11 .- A Marlenfeld special says; J. H. Peters and Henry Andrews, two priests, preside over the convent for boys here. Three weeks ago James Gross, a stadent, escaped and told of the murder last August of Lorenze Esser, one of his fellow students, by the two priests. The body was secretly buried by Fathers Peters and four of the students. Soon after the murder Father Peters and the four students left for parts inknown. Justice of the Peace Coons held a private inquest at the time of Esser's death and found the boy had killed himself by hanging. Coons claims that Esser was found hanging by an eight-inch rope in his cell. The body was exhumed and an investigation before lustice Allens showed that Esser's neck was broken, which could not have been caused by fall of eight inches.

Father Andrews and Justice of the Peace Coons have been bound over to the grand ury and search is being made for Father Peters. Gross says other murders have been com-

A SCHOOL OF SUSPECTS.

The Cronin Drag Net Makes a Big Haul. CIECAGO, Oct. 11.-Three new suspects were arrested by the police this afternoon for alleged complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin. The greatest mystery prevails around the criminal court building where the men are confined. The first information of the important proceedings were given by the state's attorney in Judge McConnell's courtroom at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when Judge Longenecker asked that the court adjourn until to-morrow. He said he had important business regarding some new developments of the case and he would be busy. Judge McConnell granted the request. Chief of Police Hubbard, Captain Schuttler, Juage Longenecker and attorneys Miller and Ingrahm at once went to the state's attorney's office, where they held a long consultation behind closed doors. The three prisoners were shortly after taken to the state's attorney's office, and others were heaven in during the afternoon and evening. The utmost secrecy was preserved by everyone in authority.

At 11:30 to-night seven men were in the state's attorney's office, probably undergoing examination. At that hour Attorney Mills came out, and to a score of waiting reporters reiterated the statement made by the state's attorney earlier in the evening, that absolutely no information would be given out attorney's office, and others were brought in until to-morrow. At midnight Chief Hubbard emerged from his private office and went out, but soon rehis private office and went out, but and turned with a man bearing 2 good and eatables. This would indicate that the recent session is to be an all night one. Soon after an assistant to the states attorney who young woman was hurried into the private office, Some thought she was Mrs. Tom Whalen, a sister of ex-Detective Coughlin. A little later two detectives appeared with a short, thick set man, apparently Irish, in tow. This makes nine arrests to-day and to night. Many stories are alloat late to-night in regard to the matter. One is that some new and exceedingly important information in regard to the murder has been discovered, the other is that nothing less than jury-fixing has come to light. The state, it is known, has had great apprehensions of a "hung" jury, but whether or not any of the eight men sworn in so far have actually been approached could not be definitely learned.

In the Cronin case to-day the state's attorney argued at length the motion of the defense for information as to motion of the defense for information as to the residence of the proposed witnesses for the prosecution. He asserted the law was fulfilled when the manies alone were given, and intimated that otherwise the witnesses would be interfered with. The defense stated that the mere names were useless for purposes of investigation. Judge McConnell ruled that the regular residence addresses must be supplied, but that the witness' present whereabouts need not be disclosed

CHICAGO'S BOODLERS.

Some Interesting Testimony In the Chris Keiling Case.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.- Special Telegram to Tur Bes |- In the trial of Chris Kell. ing's suit against the county in Judge Hawes court to-day some sensational testimony was brought out. Ex-County Architect Paber, who was an important witness in the "boodle" trials, disclosed some facts that greatly lessened Mr. Kelling's chances of getting anything further out of the county treasury for building the addition to the insane asylum. Mr. Faber testified that in Ciemons' saloon, on Clark street, he saw Keiling and several county commissioners with a pile of money on a table in front of them, and when he entered the place one of the commissioners told him he was not wanted there, and that he went out. "Did you walk unexpectedly into a room where they were and surprise them ?" Faber "Did you notice what was on the table ?"

"Yes, there was a roll of money on it." "Yes, there was a roll of money "Did Kelling ever tell you he paid money

Yes. He told me one day that he had just given Varnell $5,000."
"Did he ever tell you how much he gave to Varnell altogether for the contract?" "Yes, frequently. He said that the con-tract cost him $10,000."
